PARISH and ARCHDIOCESAN NEWS

4th Sunday Lent, 31 March 2019, Year C

STEWARDSHIP: How should stewardship be incorporated into the Sunday Eucharist? The constitution of the Sacred Liturgy under rubric 101 for "Mass with a Congregation" states:

It is fitting that the participation of the faithful be expressed by their offering of the bread and wine for the celebration of the Eucharist, together with other gifts for the needs of the church and the poor...

ROSARIES for VOCATIONS: This Lent, join with Catholics throughout the Archdiocese of Perth in Praying for Vocations!

To join in, simply pray the rosary every Thursday this Lent for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life. This campaign will culminate in a communal rosary at parishes across the Archdiocese prior to Mass on Holy Thursday, the day that our Lord established the priesthood and instituted the Holy Eucharist. Know that your prayers do make a difference, and that our Lord will not be outdone in generosity!

POPE FRANCIS SAID "Every person ought to have the awareness that purchasing is always a moral – and not simply an economic – act." It is estimated that up to 40 million people are trapped in slavery globally – 1 in 4 of these are children. They will never get an education and they will never taste the chocolate produced from the cocoa beans they pick. But people around the world are making decisions that could change this tragedy.

Good News: St Vincent's Health Australia is working towards slavery-free procurement of the goods and services used across their 32 sites.

Action: Follow the lead of Melbourne Catholic schools and St Vincent's and buy only slavery-free. It is delicious. It will feature one of these three logos.

POPE FRANCIS: LET US FIX OUR GAZE ON THE LIGHT OF CHRIST.

Angelus on 17 March 2019, St Peter's Square, Vatican City. Reflecting on the Gospel of St Luke, in which the Evangelist vividly recounts Jesus transfigured on the mountain, the Pope said, that this was "a place of light, a fascinating symbol of the unique experience reserved for the three disciples", Peter, James and John. The Transfiguration, explained the Pope, "takes place at a very precise moment of Christ's mission, that is, after he confided to his disciples that he "must suffer much, [...] be killed and rise again on the third day" (v 21). He went on to say that "the Transfiguration of Christ shows us the Christian perspective of suffering: it is a necessary but transitory passage. The point of arrival to which we are called is as luminous as the face of the transfigured Christ." By showing his glory, noted the Pope, "Jesus assures us that the cross, the trials, the difficulties with which we are struggling will be overcome and resolved with Easter. Therefore, this Lent, he continued, "let us also climb the mountain with Jesus. In what way? With prayer. Let us remain for a few moments in recollection, fix our inner gaze on his face and let his light pervade us and radiate into our lives." The Pope also pointed out that the Evangelist Luke insists that Jesus transfigured himself "while he was praying". "He had immersed himself in an intimate conversation with the Father," said Pope Francis "... and while he was adhering with all of himself to the Father's will of salvation, including the cross, the glory of God invaded him, shining forth also from the outside." The Pope concluded by saying that, "prayer in Christ and in the Holy Spirit transforms the person from within and can enlighten others and the surrounding world."
