'When people say the rosary together it is more formidable to the devil, then one said privately because in this public prayer it is an army that is attacking him. He can often overcome an individual but if the prayer is joined to other Christians, the devil in has much more trouble in getting the best of it.' - St Loui De Montfort.

MENTAL HEALTH FIRST AID COURSES:

For ten years, Emmanuel Centre has offered a limited number of scholarships for a Mental Health First Aid (MHFA) course. Over that time, we have observed that having two people trained for each parish not only helps the leadership but also provides more support for the people with mental health issues as well as their families. In order for parishioners from your parish to be considered for the scholarship we invite you to speak to your Parish Priest regarding this issue. Your Parish Priest has been sent information regarding these available scholarships. You will need a reference from your Parish Priest and you will need to attend an interview at Emmanuel Centre. Further info; Barbara Harris, emmanuelcentre@westnet.com.au or 9328 8113.

POPE FRANCIS: COMMUNION IN THE EUCHARIST. Homily on 6 May 2019, Rakovsky.

Rakovsky is the most predominantly Catholic town in Bulgaria, and the children had come from every corner of what Pope Francis called this “Land of Roses”. He was referring to the fact that Bulgaria is the world’s number one producer of rose oil, an essence used to make perfumes since the middle ages. “Jesus is alive and is here with us”, the Pope told the children, “That is why we can encounter him today in the Eucharist”. “We do not see him with our physical eyes, but we do see him with the eyes of faith”, he added. The Pope commented on the “meaningful and beautiful sign” of the children’s white robes: “You are dressed for a celebration”, he told them. “We celebrate Jesus, who wants to remain always by our side”. Turning to the Gospel reading and the miraculous multiplication of the loaves and fish, Pope Francis reminded the children how the miracle began. “It started with one child who offered all he had”, he said. “Some miracles can only take place if we have a heart like yours: a heart capable of sharing, dreaming, feeling gratitude, trusting and respecting other people”. The Lord needs you, said the Pope, “because he wants to work the miracle of bringing His joy to many of your friends and family members”. Pope Francis described the celebration as “a day of communion among yourselves and with the whole Church”. That is because “the Eucharist expresses the communion that makes all of us brothers and sisters”, he said. “This is our identity card: God is our Father, Jesus is our brother, the Church is our family. All of us are brothers and sisters, and our law”, concluded the Pope, “is love”. Pope Francis clearly thought that this image of the “identity card” was the most important part of his message because, in a spontaneous back-and-forth dialogue with the children, he had them repeat it. Twice.

ST. SIMON STOCK
(FEAST: MAY 16)

“Receive, my beloved son, this scapular of your Order; it is the special sign of my favor, which I have obtained for you and for your children of Mount Carmel. He who dies clothed with this habit shall be preserved from eternal fire. It is the badge of salvation, a shield in time of danger, and a pledge of special peace and protection.”

~ Our Lady of Mount Carmel

Skeptics always want miracles such as stepping down from the Cross, but never the greater miracle of forgiveness.
