CHURCH REPAIR UPDATE:

Dear Parishioners, now our Church roof repair work is commenced. The job was recommended by Parish Council and approved by Parish Finance committee and our Archdiocese. The details of the job are displayed still in the church foyer. Ampezzo constructions have commenced the repair work. All works will take place in the roof; doesn't affect the church inside. As displayed in the church foyer, the repair cost is $80,000.00 dollars. It may be more. I like to appeal to our community to support this big repair cost. The reality is that many (at least 40) parishioners have moved out of our parish due to age, sickness and other family circumstances. So our parish 2nd collection is dropped from $1,500 to $1,100 dollars per week. If you are regular to OLMC, you are the supporter. You are our strength. In what way you can help? ☆ If every person/family donates $50 or 100 dollars, that will cover the cost. Any donation is welcome. Last weekend one family (Ken Lla) brought me an envelope with $250.00 dollars towards the roof repair. That is a good start. A few parishioners have promised me that they will give donation. ☆ Please join the planned giving programme and contribute $5 or $10 dollars a week that will help. ☆ There will be fundraising events soon such as dinner and dance in our school hall. Please support the event...

POPE FRANCIS: GOD'S LOVE OPENS HORIZONS OF HOPE. Regina Coeli on 19 May 2019 at St Peter's Square, Vatican City.

During the Regina Coeli prayer in St Peter's Square, Pope Francis reflected on the Gospel of the day that speaks of God's love for us and of his order to love each other as we love ourselves. "Today's Gospel", the Pope said, "takes us into the Upper Room to hear some of the words that Jesus addressed to his disciples in his 'farewell address' before his passion". He recalled how after washing the feet of the twelve apostles, He says to them: "I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another". But in what sense is this commandment 'new'? The Pope asked, pointing out that already in the Old Testament God had ordered his people to love their neighbours as themselves, and that Jesus had already described as the greatest commandment of the Law to love God with all one's heart, and the second to love one's neighbour as oneself. Explaining the novelty of this commandment that Jesus entrusts to his disciples before departing from this world, Pope Francis said "The old commandment of love has become new because it has been completed with the addition 'as I have loved you'. The novelty, he said, is in the love of Jesus Christ, He who gave His life for us. It's all about God's universal love, the Pope continued, a love without conditions and without limits, "which comes to its apex on the cross". "In that moment of extreme abandonment to the Father, the Son of God showed and gave the world the fullness of love", he said. So, he continued, "thinking back to Christ's passion and agony, the disciples understood the meaning of his words: 'As I have loved you, so you also should love one another'." Jesus, the Pope said, loved us despite our frailties, our limitations and our human weaknesses. It was He who made us worthy of His love, which knows no limits and never ends. By giving us the new commandment, the Pope added, He asks us to love one another not only with our love, but with his love, the love the Holy Spirit infuses into our hearts if we invoke him with faith. Only in this way, he explained, can we love one another not only as we love ourselves, but as He loved us: that is, immensely more. "God loves us much more than we love ourselves", he said. Only in this way, Pope Francis said, can we "spread the seed of love that renews relationships between people and opens horizons of hope". "This love makes us new men and women, brothers and sisters in the Lord, it makes us the new People of God, the Church, in which everyone is called to love Christ and in Him to love one another", he said. The love manifested in the Cross, the Pope said, "is the only force that transforms our hearts of stone into hearts of flesh; that makes us capable of loving our enemies and forgiving those who have offended us; that makes us see the other as a present or future member of the community of Jesus' friends; that stimulates us to dialogue and helps us to listen to one another and know one another". "Love opens us up to others, becoming the foundation of human relationships", he concluded, "It enables us to overcome the barriers of our own weaknesses and prejudices, it creates bridges, it teaches new ways, it triggers the dynamism of fraternity".

O Jesus, Eternal Priest, Keep your priests within the shelter of Your Sacred Heart. Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily touch Your Sacred Body. Keep unsullied their lips, daily purpled with Your Precious Blood. Keep pure and unearthly their hearts, sealed with the sublime mark of the priesthood.
