CHURCH REPAIR UPDATE: Dear Parishioners, now our Church roof repair work is commenced. The job was recommended by Parish Council and approved by Parish Finance committee and our Archdiocese. The details of the job are displayed still in the church foyer. Ampezzo constructions have commenced the repair work. All works will take place in the roof; doesn't affect the church inside. As displayed in the church foyer, the repair cost is $80,000.00 dollars. It may be more. I like to appeal to our community to support this big repair cost. The reality is that many (at least 40) parishioners have moved out of our parish due to age, sickness and other family circumstances. So our parish 2nd collection is dropped from $1,500 to $1,100 dollars per week. If you are regular to OLMC, you are the supporter. You are our strength. In what way you can help? ☆ If every person / family donates $50 or 100 dollars, that will cover the cost. Any donation is welcome. Last weekend one family (Ken Hla) brought me an envelope with $250.00 dollars towards the roof repair. That is a good start. A few parishioners have promised me that they will give donation. ☆ Please join the planned giving programme and contribute $5 or $10 dollars a week that will help. ☆ There will be fundraising events soon such as dinner and dance in our school hall. Please support the event... Fr Paul.

POPE FRANCIS: HOLY SPIRIT TEACHES AND ANIMATES THE CHURCH. Regina Coeli on 26 May 2019, St Peter's Square, Vatican. Taking his cue from the Gospel for the 6th Sunday of Easter (John 14:23-29),

Pope Francis says Jesus promised never to leave the Apostles alone, as he prepared to face his Passion and the Cross. "The Paraclete, the Holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name – he will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you," were the words of that promise, the Pope said. The term "Paraclete" – in the original Greek – means "one who stands beside another, in order to support and console." In this way, the Pope said, Jesus continues to instruct and animate his disciples through the action of the Paraclete, who helps us in our mission of proclaiming the Gospel throughout the world. The Holy Spirit does not add anything to divine Revelation, said Pope Francis, because "Jesus had already transmitted all that he wanted to entrust to the Apostles." "The Holy Spirit's task is to make people remember, in other words, to make them fully understand and encourage them to concretely implement the teachings of Jesus." Pope Francis said this is also the Church's mission, which she carries out through a precise way of life. It is characterised, he said, by "faith in the Lord and the observance of his Word; docility to the action of the Spirit, who continually makes the Risen Lord alive and present; the acceptance of his peace and the witness we bear to him through an attitude of openness and encounter with others." He said the Church cannot remain stationary but relies on the active participation of each baptized person. We are called, said Pope Francis, to free ourselves from our views, strategies, and objectives which often impede the journey of faith, and to listen with docility to the Word of God. "It is the Spirit of God who guides us and guides the Church, so that her authentic face, beautiful and luminous, willed by Christ, may shine forth." Finally, Pope Francis invited the faithful to ask the Virgin Mary to protect the Church and all humanity, especially during the month of May, when we pray to Our Lady with special devotion. "May she, who with humble and courageous faith cooperated fully with the Holy Spirit in the Incarnation of the Son of God, also help us to let ourselves be instructed and guided by the Paraclete, so that we can accept the Word of God and bear witness to it with our lives."

SERENITY PRAYER ... Michael McVeigh

- Australian Catholics Editor: God grant me the serenity To accept the things I cannot change; Courage to change the things I can; And wisdom to know the difference. Living one day at a time; Enjoying one moment at a time; Accepting hardships as the pathway to peace; Taking, as He did, this sinful world As it is, not as I would have it; Trusting that He will make all things right If I surrender to His Will; So that I may be reasonably happy in this life And supremely happy with Him Forever and ever in the next. Amen.
