CHURCH REPAIR UPDATE:

Dear Parishioners, now our Church roof repair work is commenced. The job was recommended by Parish Council and approved by Parish Finance committee and our Archdiocese. The details of the job are displayed still in the church foyer. Ampezzo constructions have commenced the repair work. All works will take place in the roof; doesn't affect the church inside. As displayed in the church foyer, the repair cost is $80,000.00 dollars. It may be more. I like to appeal to our community to support this big repair cost. The reality is that many (at least 40) parishioners have moved out of our parish due to age, sickness and other family circumstances. So our parish 2nd collection is dropped from $1,500 to $1,100 dollars per week. If you are regular to OLMC, you are the supporter. You are our strength. In what way you can help? ☆ If every person / family donates $50 or 100 dollars that will cover the cost. Any donation is welcome. Last weekend one family (Ken Hla) brought me an envelope with $250.00 dollars towards the roof repair. That is a good start. A few parishioners have promised me that they will give donation. ☆ Please join the planned giving programme and contribute $5 or $10 dollars a week that will help. ☆ There will be fundraising events soon such as dinner and dance in our school hall. Please support the event... Fr Paul.

POPE FRANCIS: CORPUS CHRISTI RENEWS OUR AMAZEMENT IN EUCHARIST. Angelus on 23 June 2019 at St Peter's Square, Vatican City.

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, often referred to as the feast of Corpus Christi, is traditionally celebrated on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday, including in the Vatican, but in many places the feast is moved to the following Sunday. Pope Francis took the opportunity to reflect on the day's Gospel (Lk 9:11-17) of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes to feed a large crowd. Jesus, said the Pope, "invites his disciples to be truly converted from the line-of-reasoning of 'each one for himself' to that of sharing". He said we begin with the little that Providence makes available to us. Pope Francis said this miracle "shows the power of the Messiah" and "his compassion for the people." When Jesus miraculously feeds the large crowd with so little food, he is anticipating what will be the memorial of his sacrifice: the Eucharist. "The Eucharist is the synthesis of Jesus' entire existence, which was a single act of love for the Father and for his brothers and sisters," he said. Just as he does at the Last Supper, Jesus takes bread, prays to the Father, breaks the bread, and gives it to his disciples. "On the eve of his Passion," said Pope Francis, "he sought to leave in that gesture the Testament of the new and eternal Covenant, a perpetual memorial of his Pascal death and resurrection." The feast of Corpus Christi, he said, is a yearly invitation "to renew our amazement and joy at this wonderful gift from the Lord". "Let us welcome him with gratitude, not in a passive, habitual way... Every time we draw near to the altar to receive the Eucharist, we must truly renew our 'amen' to the Body of Christ." Following the Angelus prayer, Pope Francis recalled the beatification of Maria Carmen Lacaba Andía and 13 sisters of the Franciscan Order of the Immaculate Conception, which was held on Saturday in Madrid, Spain. These 14 cloistered nuns, he said, died in hatred of the faith during the religious persecution which took place in Spain between 1936 and 1939. "Their martyrdom is an invitation to all of us to be strong and persevering, especially at the hour of trial," he said.

Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel

Holy One of Israel, Carmelites have always loved Mary the mother of your Son. She is our sister in humanity and in faith. With her we ask you to care for those we remember today, to show them that you walk with them in darkness and in light. We ask this through Jesus, your beloved Son.

Amen.

HAIL MARY, FULL OF GRACE THE LORD IS WITH THEE.

Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.
