CHURCH REPAIR UPDATE: Dear Parishioners, now our Church roof repair work is commenced. The job was recommended by Parish Council and approved by Parish Finance committee and our Archdiocese. The details of the job are displayed still in the church foyer. Ampezzo constructions have commenced the repair work. All works will take place in the roof; doesn't affect the church inside. As displayed in the church foyer, the repair cost is $80,000.00 dollars. It may be more. I like to appeal to our community to support this big repair cost. The reality is that many (at least 40) parishioners have moved out of our parish due to age, sickness and other family circumstances. So our parish 2nd collection is dropped from $1,500 to $1,100 dollars per week. If you are regular to OLMC, you are the supporter. You are our strength. In what way you can help? ☆ If every person / family donates $50 or 100 dollars that will cover the cost. Any donation is welcome. A few parishioners have promised that they will give donation. ☆ Please join the planned giving programme and contribute $5 or $10 dollars a week that will help. ☆ There will be fundraising events soon such as dinner and dance in our school hall. Please support the event... Fr Paul.

POPE FRANCIS: TRUE JOY IS TO WALK IN THE COMPANY OF THE LORD. Angelus 7 July 2019, St Peter's Square, Vatican City. Pope Francis focused his catechesis on Sunday on the missionary nature of the Church, pointing out that it must always be joyful and bring peace and healing. Reflecting on the Gospel reading of the day that tells of when Jesus, in addition to the twelve apostles, sent seventy-two disciples on a mission – because 72 he explained refers to the 72 different nations mentioned in the book of Genesis – the Pope said “this sending anticipates the Church's mission to proclaim the Gospel to all.” He said that to those disciples Jesus said “The harvest is abundant but the labourers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out labourers for his harvest”. And inviting each of us to do so with an open heart, with a missionary attitude, the Pope said “our prayer must not be limited only to our needs and our necessities, because a prayer is truly Christian if it also has a universal dimension”. Pope Francis went on to explain that mission is based on prayer; that it is itinerant; that it requires detachment and poverty; that it brings peace and healing which, he said, are signs of the closeness of the Kingdom of God. He also stressed that mission is not proselytism but proclamation and witness and said it requires frankness and the evangelical freedom. “If lived in these terms, the mission of the Church will be marked by joy”, he said. The Pope concluded noting that this joy is not a fleeting joy triggered by the success of the mission, but a joy rooted in the promise that – as Jesus says - “your names are written in heaven”. It's the inner and indestructible joy that comes from the awareness of having been called by God to follow his Son: the joy of being his disciples. “Each of us”, Pope Francis said, “can think of the name he received on the day of his baptism: that name is “written in heaven”, in the heart of God the Father. “And it is the joy of this gift that makes every disciple a missionary, one who walks in the company of the Lord Jesus, who learns from Him to spend himself, unreservedly, for others, free from himself and from his own possessions”.

The three things that TORMENT the DEVILS

The first is the NAME OF JESUS;

 The second, the NAME OF MARY;

and third, THE BROWN SCAPULAR OF OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL.

“Take off that habit,” they cried to him, “which snatches too many souls from us. All those clothed in it die piously and escape us.”
