POPE FRANCIS: General Audience on 28 August 2019. St Peter's Square, Vatican City.

Continuing his catechesis on the Acts of the Apostles, Pope Francis reflected on how Jesus strengthened the early Christian community to serve those in need, especially as seen in the ministry of St Peter. The Lord, said the Pope, was generous with Jesus' disciples, who worked "many signs and wonders" (Acts 5:12, 15-16). He said the early Church is depicted as "a field hospital that takes in the weakest people: the infirm." "The sick hold a privileged role in the Church and in the priestly heart of all the faithful," said Pope Francis. "They are not to be cast aside. On the contrary, they are to be cared for, to be looked after. They are the objects of Christian concern." The Holy Father said Peter emerges as the head of the apostles, as his Pentecost preaching and ministry of healing shows. Peter, like Jesus, is drawn to people suffering illness and infirmity, so he acts in persona Christi, allowing Christ to operate in his actions. "Peter carries out the work of the Master," said Pope Francis. "Looking at him with faith, we see Christ himself." "In the wounds of the sick and in the diseases that impede us from moving forward in life, Jesus' presence, and His wounds, is always there," he added. "Jesus calls each of us to look after them, to support them, and to heal them." Pope Francis said the healing power of the apostles incited envy and hate in the Sadducees, who imprisoned and beat them. Peter's response to their threats, said the Pope, was that "we must obey God rather than men". "This is the great Christian response," he said. "It means listening to God without hesitation". Finally, the Holy Father invited the pilgrims present at the General Audience to ask the Holy Spirit for the interior strength to know that God is always at our side as we carry out His healing work.

OUR LADY of MT CARMEL NOVENA

God our Father, prompted by Your Spirit the order of Carmel has from the beginning dedicated itself to the Mother of Your Son. As she unites her prayers with ours, look with favour upon us and bless our families, keep each of us from harm And bring us to the joy of heaven. We ask this through Jesus the Lord. Amen.

SOULS in PURGATORY PRAYER

Eternal Father, I offer You the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, for those in my own home, and in my family. Amen.

OUR LADY of ALL NATIONS PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Father, send now Your Spirit over the earth. Let the Holy Spirit live in the hearts of all nations, that they may be preserved from degeneration, disaster and war. May the Lady of All Nations, the Blessed Virgin Mary, be our Advocate. Amen.

ST THERESE'S DAILY PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

O Jesus, Eternal Priest, Keep your priests within the shelter of Your Sacred Heart. Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily touch Your Sacred Body. Keep unsullied their lips, daily purpled with Your Precious Blood. Keep pure and unearthly their hearts, sealed with the sublime mark of the priesthood. Let Your holy love surround them and shield them from the world's contagion. May the souls to whom they minister be their joy and consolation, here and in heaven, their beautiful and everlasting crown. Amen.
