POPE AT ANGELUS: ADVENT HELP US FIND JESUS IN THE NEEDS OF OTHERS. Angelus on 1 December 2019, St Peter’s Square, Vatican City. At the beginning of the new liturgical year, the Pope took a moment ahead of the traditional Marian prayer to comment on how the Advent season reminds us that Jesus constantly enters our lives. He said the certainty that Jesus will return at the end of time urges us to look to the future with confidence and hope. Turning to the First Reading, the Pope said the prophet Isaiah paints a picture of the mountain of the Lord's house to which all nations shall be drawn. After the Incarnation of the Son of God, said Pope Francis, Jesus revealed Himself as the true temple atop that mountain. "The marvellous vision of Isaiah is a divine promise," he said, "and impels us to assume an attitude of pilgrimage, of journeying towards Christ, who is the meaning and goal of history." Advent, said Pope Francis, "is the time to welcome Jesus' coming, as He comes as a messenger of peace to show us the ways of God." In the day's Gospel reading, Jesus urges us to "stay awake" for His coming. The image of staying awake does not mean keeping one's eyes literally open at all times, said Pope Francis, but means having one's heart "free and oriented in the right direction" by offering ourselves for the benefit of others in service. "The sleep from which we must awake is created by indifference, by vanity, and by the inability to establish genuinely human relationships and to take care of our brothers and sisters who find themselves alone, abandoned, or ill." The Pope said our expectant waiting for Jesus requires vigilance in the form of "marvelling at God's action and at His surprises." Vigilance, he continued, means "paying attention to our neighbour in difficulty and allowing their need to draw us in, without waiting for him or her to ask us for help." Finally, Pope Francis asked the Virgin Mary for her guidance along the Advent journey. "May Mary, the vigilant Virgin and Mother of hope," he said, help us "to turn our gaze towards the 'mountain of the Lord', the image of Jesus Christ, who draws all people to Himself."

Family Prayer

God made us a family.
We need one another.
We love one another.
We forgive one another.
We work together.
We play together.
We worship together.
Together we use God's word.
Together we grow in Christ.
Together we love all people.
Together we serve our God.
Together we hope for heaven.
These are our hopes and ideals.
Help us to attain them,
O God, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PLENARY COUNCIL PRAYER: Come, Holy Spirit of Pentecost. Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land. O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia and guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council. Give us the grace to see your face in one another and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road. Give us the courage to tell our stories and to speak boldly of your truth. Give us ears to listen humbly to each other and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying. Lead your Church into a hope-filled future, that we may live the joy of the Gospel. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, bread for the journey from age to age. Amen.
