POPE FRANCIS: CHURCH HEARS THE CRY OF MARGINALIZED AND POOR.

Angelus on 9 February 2020. St Peter's Square, Vatican City.

Pope Francis reflected on Jesus' call in the day's Gospel (Mt 5:13-16) for His disciples to be salt and light. Jesus' use of symbolic language, said the Pope, lays out criteria for how the Lord's disciples are to live their mission in the world. Beginning with the metaphor of salt, he said it gives flavour and preserves food from spoiling. So, said the Pope, "the disciple is therefore called to keep society away from the dangers and corrosive elements that pollute people's lives." Christians do this by resisting sin and moral degradation, as well as by bearing witness to honesty and solidarity. He also warned of several temptations to be on guard against, including careerism, power, and wealth. Even when we fall, said Pope Francis, being salt means starting afresh every day "with courage and patience", seeking "dialogue and encounter with others." Being salt also means not seeking approval or praise, but being faithful to Jesus' teaching to serve our brothers and sisters in humility. "This attitude is greatly needed!" the Pope exclaimed. Turning to the second image, Pope Francis said light "dispels darkness and allows us to see." Jesus, he said, has already dispelled the darkness of sin, though some shadows "still remain in the world and within individuals." "It is the Christian's task to dispel it further by making Christ's light shine among others and by proclaiming His Gospel," he said. We can emanate the Lord's light through our words, but especially through our good deeds, directing others "to God so they can experience His goodness and mercy." "A disciple of Jesus is light when he or she knows how to live their faith outside narrow spaces, helping to eliminate prejudices, slander, and bringing the light of truth into situations tainted by hypocrisy and lies." Pope Francis said Jesus is urging us to live our faith in the world, despite the headwinds of conflict and sin. The Church, he said, must overcome violence, injustice, and oppression, and "cannot abandon her mission of evangelization and service." "The Church gives herself with generosity and tenderness on behalf of the least and the poor. She listens to the cry of those in last place and the excluded, because she is aware that she is a pilgrim community called to extend throughout history the saving presence of Jesus Christ." Before beginning the Angelus prayer, Pope Francis concluded his remarks asking that the Blessed Virgin

Virgin "help us to be salt and light in the world, bringing to everyone – in life and word – the Good News of God's love."

Shrove Tuesday

Shrove Tuesday is the name of the day before the start of Lent on Ash Wednesday.

The word "shrove" is the past tense of the English verb "shrive" which means to obtain absolution for one's sins by way of confession and by doing penance.

On this day, Catholics are encouraged to go to confession in preparation for the penitential Season.

 Catholic Fortress

Dear God,

If I am wrong, correct me.

If I am lost, guide me.

If I start to give up, keep me going

KNOW YOUR WORTH - Author unknown: A father before he died said to his son: "This is a watch your grandfather gave me, and it's more than 200 years old. But before I give it to you, go to the watch shop on the first street, and tell him I want to sell it, and see how much he offers you. "He went, and then came back to his father, and said, "The watchmaker offered $5 because it's old. " He said to him: "Go to the coffee shop. " He went and then came back, and said: "He offered $5 father. " "Go to the museum and show them that watch. " He went then came back, and said to his father "They offered me $1 million for this piece. " The father said: "I wanted to let you know that the right place values you in the right way. Don't find yourself in the wrong place and get angry if you're not valued. Those that know your value are those who appreciate you, don't stay in a place where nobody sees your value. "
