OLMC Feast - 16th Sunday Ordinary, 19 July 2020, Year A

FIRST READING

1 Kings 18:42b-25a

A reading from the first book of Kings

Elijah climbed to the top of Carmel and bowed down to the earth, putting his face between his knees. 'Now go up,' he told his servant 'and look out to sea,' He went up and looked. 'There is nothing at all,' he said. 'Go back seven times,' Elijah said. The seventh time, the servant said, 'Now there is a cloud, small as a man's hand, rising from the sea.' Elijah said, 'Go and say to Ahab, "Harness the chariot and go down before the rain stops you."' And with that the sky grew dark with cloud and storm, and rain fell in torrents. This is the word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 14:1, 2-3, 4

Response: Draw us after you, Virgin Mary; we shall follow in your footsteps.

1. Lord, who shall be admitted to your tent and dwell on your holy mountain? R.
2. He who walks without fault; he who acts with justice and speaks the truth from his heart. R.
3. He who does not slander with his tongue; he who does no wrong to his brother, who casts no slur against his neighbour. R.
4. He who holds the godless in disdain, but honours those who fear the Lord. R.

SECOND READING

Galatians 4:4-7

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Galatians

When the appointed time came, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born a subject of the Law to redeem the subjects of the Law and to enable us to be adopted as sons and daughters. The proof that you are sons and daughters of God is that God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts: the Spirit that cries, 'Abba, Father,' and it is this that makes you a son, you are not a slave anymore; and if God has made you son, then he has made you heir. This is the word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia. Blessed are those who hear the word of God and keep it. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

GOSPEL

John 19:25-27

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Near the cross of Jesus stood his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary of Magdala. Seeing his mother and the disciple he loved standing near her, Jesus said to his mother, 'Woman, this is your son.' Then to the disciple he said, 'This is your mother.' And from that moment the disciple made a place for her in his home. This is the Gospel of the Lord.

"SUNFLOWERS in the GARDEN of CARMEL"

By Blessed Titus Brandsma

The devotion to Mary is one of the most delightful flowers in Carmel's garden. I should like to call it a sunflower. This flower rises up high above the other flowers. Borne aloft on a tall stem, rich in green leaves, the flower is raised yet higher from among the green foliage.

It is characteristic of this flower to turn itself towards the sun and moreover it is an image of the sun. It is a simple flower; it can grow in all gardens and it is an ornament to all. It is tall and firm and has deep roots like a tree. In the same way, no devotion is firmer than that to Mary. The fresh foliage, the green leaves point to the abundance of virtues, with which the devotion to Mary is surrounded.

The flower itself represents the soul created after God's image in order to absorb the sunlight of God's bounty. Two suns shining into each other, one radiant with an unfathomable light, the other absorbing that light, basking in that light and glowing like another sun, but so enraptured by the beams of the Sun which shines on it, that it cannot turn itself away from Him, but can only live for Him and through Him.

Such a flower was Mary. Like her, so may we, flower from her seed, raise our flower-buds to the Sun, Who infused Himself into her, and will transmit to us also the beams of His light and warmth.

COMMUNION REFLECTION

Introduction - Taken from "Story of a Soul" ... By John Clarke OCD

A letter Sister Thérèse carried on her heart on the day of her Profession 8 September 1890.

O Jesus, my Divine Spouse! May I never lose the second robe of my baptism! Take me before I can commit the slightest voluntary fault. May I never seek nor find anything but Yourself alone. May creatures be nothing for me and may I be nothing for them, but may You, Jesus, be everything!

May the things of earth never be able to trouble my soul, and may nothing disturb my peace. Jesus, I ask You for nothing but peace, and also love, infinite love without any limits other than Yourself; love which is no longer I but You, my Jesus.

Jesus, may I die a martyr for You. Give me martyrdom of heart or of body, or rather give me both. Give me the grace to fulfil my Vows in all their perfection, and make me understand what a real spouse of Yours should be. Never let me be a burden to the community, let nobody be occupied with me, let me be looked upon as one to be trampled underfoot, forgotten like Your little grain of sand, Jesus.

May Your will be done in me perfectly, and may I arrive at the place You have prepared for me. Jesus, allow me to save very many souls; let no soul be lost today; let all the souls in purgatory be saved. Jesus, pardon me if I say anything I should not say. I want only to give You joy and to console You.

Secondly, the ritual or liturgical action that takes place in this passage enhances those images. The liturgical recitation of ancient Hebrew creed once again tells the story of salvation in such a way that it draws the participant into the story.

POPE'S MISSIONARY PRAYER INTENTION FOR JULY 2020:

We are invited to pray for families. During this COVID-19 pandemic, Pope Francis reminds us that "The family ought to be protected. It faces many dangers: the fast pace of life, stress... Sometimes, parents forget to play with their children. We need to encourage families and stay at their side, helping them to discover ways that allow them to overcome all of these difficulties. Let us pray that today's families may be accompanied with love, respect and guidance." ... Catholic Mission is the Australian agency of Pope Francis' international Pontifical Mission Societies. Thank you for your on-going support. For more information visit <https://www.catholicmission.org.au/>

SUPPORT OLMC PRIMARY SCHOOL FUNDRAISING: Do you love pasta? Here is a chance to support our Primary school and buy uncooked and fresh pasta. To buy pasta, you are requested to fill in the details, pay by credit card and drop it in the school. Details are in the printed forms that are placed in the church foyer.

BLESSED WATER: The Holy Water of Our Lady of Mt Carmel blessed during weekend Mass will be placed near Our Lady's statue in confessional side. Parishioners are welcome to take one or two bottles of Holy Water. You are welcome to place a donation for the bottles in the candle donation.

Holy water has a special power to defend us against all attacks of the devil. When we make the sign of the cross with holy water, we gain each time an indulgence of one hundred days.

—Pope Pius IX

Act of Spiritual Communion

A Prayer by St. Alphonsus Maria de Liguori

My Jesus,
 I believe that You are present
 in the Most Holy Sacrament.
 I love You above all things,
 and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment
 receive You sacramentally,
 come at least spiritually into my heart.
 I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

PRAYER FOR PRIESTS By St Faustina: O my Jesus, I beg you on behalf of the whole Church: Grant it love and the light of your Spirit, and give power to the words of priests so that hardened hearts might be brought to repentance and return to you, O Lord. Lord, give us holy priests; you yourself maintain them in holiness. O Divine and Great High Priest, may the power of your mercy accompany them everywhere and protect them from the devil's traps and snares which are continually being set for the souls of priests.
